Test Measurement Equipment and Cleaning Tools

LASER COMPONENTS Appointed Master Distributor by AFL Noyes

Since April 1, LASER COMPONENTS is the official Master Distributor in Germany for the test and measurement equipment manufactured by AFL Noyes. Patrick Paul, LASER COMPONENTS' general manager, remarked: "We are excited that the manufacturer has chosen us. The products are an integral part in our fiber network technology portfolio which we are planning to grow further in the future. Having been selected shows that our approach to the market was convincing to AFL."

The product line of AFL Noyes comprises comprehensive test and measurement solutions for optical networks, for example OTDRs, power meters, optical sources, sets for attenuation measurement, devices for dispersion measurement, connector microscopes, and fiber testers as well as extensive cleaning tools. AFL connects its customers all over the world with innovative technologies, user-friendly products, and exceptional service.
