

INCOMEDIA to exhibit at CeBIT 2010 in Hannover, Germany for the 5th Successive Year

Incomedia will be a proud participant for the 5th successive year at the world's largest ICT trade show. Incomedia will be presenting its multi award winning WebSite X5 software which has had a major update and now includes a complete web hosting package.

Against the global market trend of the past year, Incomedia experienced a year of continuous growth, successfully securing a successful position in markets like Germany and Great Britain. Furthermore, Incomedia was also expanding its global presence by entering new markets such as Russia, Poland, Turkey and Mexico. WebSite X5 Evolution 8 is currently available in 18 languages and is sold in over 40 countries through a wide network of distributors, resellers and partners.

At CeBIT, Incomedia will be presenting its flagship product WebSite X5 Evolution 8 which now includes web hosting via Incomedia's strategic partner One.com. Through this successful collaboration end users of WebSite X5 Evolution 8 will now receive a full 12 month One.com web hosting pack which includes: a domain name, 3GB web hosting space and unlimited e-mail accounts to name a few of the features. This great addition of the web hosting pack ensures that once a customer has used WebSite X5 to create their website they can immediately get online at no additional cost.

Federico Ranfagni, CEO of Incomedia comments "CeBIT has established itself as the most important event in the ICT industry. We are very glad to be exhibiting for fifth year in row and take part in this global event. For us CeBIT is one of the most important events in our calendar, it gives us the chance to meet face-to-face with most of our global partners in one location; and is the ideal opportunity to meet with new partners, press and end users also.

Incomedia will welcome visitors, partners and the press to their stand located in hall 9, stand B19.
