-TECHART Sports Package Carbon-

Leonberg, August 2014 – Sportiness through and through. TECHART Automobildesign adds attractive design elements made of genuine carbon fibre to its aerodynamic programs for Porsche models. Distinguished by low tare weight, precise surface finishing as well as individual design options, the TECHART Sports Package Carbon sets sincere motor sport styling highlights.

TECHART Automobildesign uses carbon fibre intensely as significant element of its individualization programs for Porsche vehicles. Not least because of its high-quality of material impression, carbon fibre is primarily used in surface finishing refinement.

Air intakes, Aerowings, rear diffuser and more. The new TECHART Sports Package Carbon for the current Porsche 911, Boxster and Cayman models can be ordered with immediate effect. In-house produced by body work specialists and selectively available in matt or glossy finish, it allows a precise adoption to the vehicle's aerodynamic design elements; for an all-around intense motor sport feeling. A stylistic harmony with standard or TECHART individual paint is guaranteed.

The carbon fibre finish is available now for the following parts:

- TECHART Air Outlet Grille for Porsche 911 (991), Boxster and Cayman (981)
- TECHART Aerowings for Porsche 911 Turbo and Turbo S (991)
- TECHART Trims for side air intakes for Porsche 911 Turbo and Turbo S (991)
- TECHART Roof Spoiler for Porsche 911 (991) models
- TECHART Rear Diffuser for Porsche 911 Turbo and Turbo S (991)
- Porsche side mirrors for Porsche 911 (991), Boxster and Cayman (981)

Further parts for the TECHART Sports Package Carbon are currently under development.
