

Would you like to learn more about

Public Procurement for the Future?

The PEPPOL project (Pan-European Public Procurement Online) is arranging an international conference in Oslo on 18 – 20 May 2009 in collaboration with BUSINESSEUROPE. We hereby invite you to participate, please see below for more information and registration.

Public procurement giving tax payers

- best value for money
- enabling innovation
- utilising public private partnerships
- creating market opportunities for small and medium sized enterprises
- including social and environmental considerations
- ensuring compliance with the fundamental principles of equal treatment, non-discrimination, mutual recognition, proportionality and transparency
- utilising electronic means

- this is Public Procurement for the Future.

A selection of our speakers:

- Heidi Grande Røys, Norwegian Minister of Government Administration and Reform
- Philippe de Buck, Director General of BUSINESSEUROPE (video message)
- Bertrand Carsin, Director for Public Procurement Policy at the DG Internal Market and Services
- Finn Bergesen Jr., Director General, NHO - Confederation of Norwegian Enterprises
- Elena-Loredana Puiu, Legal Officer, DG Internal Market and Services
- Sue Bird, European Commission, DG Employment, Social Affairs and Equal Opportunities
- Alenka Burja, European Commission, DG Environment
- Mark Hidson, ICLEI - Local Governments for Sustainability
- Danilo Oreste Broggi, CEO, Italian Public Procurement Agency - CONSIP
- Reinhard Posch, STORK, Digital Austria
- André Hoddevik, PEPPOL Project Director, Agency for Public Management and eGovernment

For more information and registration

Full program, additional social program and registration is found at www.peppol.eu/peppol-conference
The conference will be carried through entirely in English.