

COMM-TEC is new distributor for LED Video Walls from INFiLED

COMM-TEC announces sales distribution of LED Video Walls from INFiLED in Germany, Austria, Switzerland and Eastern Europe

Uhingen, April 2nd 2020

With INFiLED, COMM-TEC GmbH is expanding its portfolio in the display and LED solutions sector with immediate effect by adding a leading global manufacturer of LED screens. Within the framework of the new sales partnership, dealers and integrators in Germany, Austria, Switzerland and Eastern Europe will be able to access COMM-TEC's entire INFiLED portfolio for all possible application areas (indoor, outdoor, creative).

A special highlight in the INFiLED portfolio is the ultra-thin and extremely light wallpaper series. With its unique edge thickness of 29.5 mm, it is very filigree and saves a lot of space. Installation and maintenance are possible via front access. With its 16:9 panel and narrow pixel pitch, it is designed to support native Full HD and 4K resolutions, ensuring a perfect visual effect for pictures and videos.

“We are pleased to announce our new distribution partnership with COMM-TEC“, says Marco Bruines, Senior Vice President of INFiLED EMEA.. “COMM-TEC as part of EXERTIS is a company with long history and strong distribution channels, adding value to the industry and to customers as a one-stop shop AV distributor. We are looking forward to working closely with COMM-TEC as our distribution partner, especially for the WP LED series in many countries across Europe.”

Carsten Steinecker, Managing Director Business Development at COMM-TEC GmbH, is delighted about the new partnership: "The market for LED walls is experiencing strong growth. INFiLED and COMM-TEC will be the perfect alliance to ideally serve the needs of integrators and dealers and to further establish the topic of LEDs in the market."
