net-m privatbank 1891 AG expands Management Board

Dusseldorf, 08 December 2014 - The net-m privatbank 1891 AG today announced that Mr. Ralf Bloß is strengthening the Bank's Management Board since 06 October 2014. He was appointed, after Susanne Lehmann decided to resign from the Board at her own request. Edgar Schnorpfeil, CEO of net mobile AG and Supervisory Board Member of net-m's subsidiary net-m Privatbank 1891 AG thanked Mrs. Lehmann for her hard work over the years and wishes her all the best for her private and business future.

Previously, Mr. Bloß was among others CFO at NetBank AG for more than 13 years, where he was responsible for Finance, Credit and Banking. "Mr. Bloß brings with him a breadth of valuable experience, particularly in building and managing a direct bank. We are very glad that he now contributes his gained skills for the benefit of our Bank", said Mr. Schnorpfeil.

About net-m privatbank 1891 AG

The net-m privatbank 1891 is one of the oldest private banks in Germany and was founded in the 19th century. The publicly quoted company worked exclusively as a regional universal bank until 1999. Since 2012 the bank is a 100% owned subsidiary of the Japanese NTT DOCOMO Group and has set a course on the national and international payments market with approximately 25 employees at two locations in Germany. The product range is diverse: in addition to traditional banking products for consumers, the net-m privatbank 1891 AG also acts as an acquiring bank for credit cards, provides billing and instalment purchase and mobile payment solutions in the international dealer sector.
